

Now YOU Be an Author!!

2nd Grade Writing Challenge

Re-read The Tiny Seed by Eric Carle and look over the workbook pages “Working with the Book” that you did in class. Work with a partner and use one of the story prompts below or create your own and begin writing your story. Make sure you use your Weather and Seasons vocabulary words in your story.

Choose one from the following options to begin your story for the writing challenge.

1. Today is a beautiful day to plant a seed because....
2. If I were a seed.....
3. A seed fell to the ground.....
4. Weather can be helpful to a seed because.....
5. Weather can be harmful to a seed because.....

WRITING GUIDELINES

Remember to do your best effort because the story you write will be published in the Creative Writing Challenge Books!

Write a first draft, use your vocabulary words.

Make corrections and write in ink or type for your final copy.

Use 8 1/2" x 11" white paper.

Please keep your story and illustration to ONE page.

You may illustrate your story, but an illustration should not replace writing.

Make sure your name, school and teacher's name are on the bottom of your story.

Leave 1" margins on all sides so your story can be bound into the SHARP Literacy Inc. Writing Books.
